

Survivor - How Emotional Intelligence Keeps You in the Game

Speaker: Grace Gouw, Executive Coach, Grace Gouw Consulting Pty Ltd

5.45pm - 8pm, Thursday 3 May 2018

Clayton Utz, Level 15, 1 Bligh Street, Sydney

Are you emotionally intelligent? Have you ever wished you could handle difficult people, conversations or workloads better?

If you want the keys to a fulfilling and satisfying lawyer life, come join us for a hands on workshop led by Executive Coach Grace Gouw to:

- define your purpose;
- gain insight into emotional intelligence and resilience and how you can master it to make your lawyer life your best life; and
- share open and honest experiences about what lawyer life is really like and what it could be.

Grace Gouw is an Executive Coach and experienced leader who has led high performing teams across Australia and the Asia Pacific region for American Express to deliver key outcomes, enhance shareholder value and optimise customer experiences. Grace holds a Master of Science in Coaching Psychology (University of Sydney) and is passionate about helping individuals in their career and life path to become better leaders in their journey.

Grace thrives in dynamic and challenging environments and has built strong relationships as a result of her effective communication skills and a high EQ. In recent times, Grace has been a consultant to Minter Ellison and Baker McKenzie to help drive change and transition practice groups and staff to become more adaptive to changes with their processes, embrace technology and to visualize the positives in the changes including embracing behaviour changes in the new workspace.

Grace is passionate about helping people in their development to realise their full potential; transition to the next level of their career; build resilience; and increase self-awareness and emotional intelligence.
