

Ever Considered Sharing Your Skills in Another Country?

Your Skills Will Advance a Developing Community

Palms Australia matches skilled Australians with developing communities to build capacity and assist as they become self-sufficient, enterprising and resilient. We are actively seeking volunteers with a technical background, to provide training/teaching for our partner organisations in Papua New Guinea

Position Available:

◇ Legal Consultant

To provide legal support and assist with the development and review of policies, contracts and by laws for a well-established University in Papua New Guinea. The position will commence in January 2014.

Our staff arrange pre-departure preparation, flights, insurance, accommodation, a basic living allowance, personal and professional support and re-entry assistance on return home.

Work for the world!
Gain unique insight into another culture!

Apply now for a 2014 placement.

For further information please contact us.

www.palms.org.au | palms@palms.org.au | (02) 9518 9651