

Invitation

Workplace Practices Sub-Committee of Women Lawyers Association of NSW presents - an evening with Fair Work Australia

You are invited to a unique networking event with various members of Fair Work Australia and fellow female workplace relations specialists.

The evening will start with a presentation by Vice President of Fair Work Australia, Graeme R Watson who will give a key note address on Fair Work Australia's first year of operation. VP Watson has worked exclusively in employment and industrial law and has been involved in many landmark cases and industrial disputes as both adviser and counsel.

As VP at FWA he heads a panel of industries that includes airlines, education, maritime, ports, retail, storage and wholesale.

You will have the opportunity to share experiences with your colleagues in the field and the Fair Work Australia members.

Time for questions and drinks will follow the formal address.
